DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

[From the New York World of 5th.]

MRS. LINCOLN'S WARDROBE.

Further Revelations—The Crowds at Mr. Brady's Rooms—U. S. Senators Among the Visitors—Thurlow Weed and the Late Lamented President's "Fine Linen Shirts."

The publication of Mrs. Lincoln's correspondence with her agent in this city in regard to the sale of her wardrobe, has created a great flutter in circles fashionable as well as political. Yesterday the rooms of Mr. Brady, 609 Broadway, were filled nearly all day by ladies and gentlemen, who came to look at the goods displayed for sale. During the day three United States Senators, whose names by request we withhold, called to see Mr. Brady.

The sales yesterday did not exceed $150, notwithstanding the large number of ladies that called. Many no doubt were prompted by curiosity, and after examining the goods to their satisfaction retired without purchasing. Among those who called were the wives and daughters of several prominent merchants.

As previously announced, if the greater part of the inventory is not disposed of within a few days, they will be put up at auction, and sold for what they will bring.

Among the dresses is the one which Mrs. Lincoln wore on the night of the assassination; also that in which she appeared on the occasion of President Lincoln's second inauguration.

WHAT THURLOW WEED HAS TO SAY—FURTHER REVELATIONS—MR. LINCOLN'S SHIRTS.

[From the Commercial Advertiser, Oct. 4]

We have never approached a question with half the sorrow that this one awakens. To vindicate, shield, and protect "Heaven's best gift to man" is a grateful duty, while to even reprove, and much more to assail a woman, is painful, and, if without a perfect justification, unmanly.

If the American Congress or the American people have failed to meet the pecuniary expectations of Mr. Lincoln's widow, it is because that personage failed, during his life and since his death, to inspire either with respect or confidence. They should not, therefore, be subjected to the reproach, or rest under the imputation of ingratitude. Had Mrs. Lincoln, while in power, borne herself becomingly, the suggestion of a Lincoln fund, by voluntary contributions, would have been promptly responded to.—The national heart was warm. It gushed out in liberal endowments for Grant and Farragut. It would as cheerfully have met the appeal in favor of Mrs. Lincoln, if it had not intuitively closed and chilled.

In her conversations Mrs. Lincoln is represented as bitterly denouncing Secretary Seward, for which, of course, there is no warrant or excuse, for he wrongs no man, and much less is he capable of injustice, wrong, or even unkindness, to woman.

But we happen to know—the late Caleb B. Smith, then Secretary of the Interior, being our informant—a fact which incensed Mrs. Lincoln against Mr. Seward. The President gave the Prince Napoleon a dinner, for which Mrs. Lincoln sent to the Secretary of the Interior for payment of a bill of some $900. This demand, though wholly illegal, coming from the President's wife, embarrassed the Secretary, who called upon the Secretary of State for advice, when he learned that Mr. Seward had also dined the Prince, having the same number of guests, and giving them a duplicate of the dinner at the White House. In fact Mr. Seward ordered both dinners from the same restaurant, and by his own bill knew the costs of each. For what Mr. Seward paid $300, Mrs. Lincoln demanded $900. But whether three or nine hundred, the claim was alike illegal, and could not be paid. For this, however, Mrs. Lincoln quarreled with Secretaries Smith and Seward. This amount, however, was subsequently covered up in a gardener's account, but occasioned scandal, which respect for Mr. Lincoln measurably suppressed.

Though Mr. Lincoln left an estate which enabled his family to live quite as comfortably as they had ever lived, Congress and the people would have promptly and cheerfully provided munificently for them, if Mrs. Lincoln herself, with every advantage that high position gave her, had made friends or inspired respect. And this last exhibition proves how instinctively right the popular estimate of her character was.

The fact for which Mrs. Lincoln seeks large publicity, namely, that she received presents valued at $24,000, is a pregnant and suggestive one—suggestive, at least, of offices and contracts, unless the more charitable construction is reached through the assumption that they were expressions of regard and friendship. But it is not known that the wife of any president, however estimable, was so loaded with shawls, laces, furs, diamonds, rings, &c.

Mrs. Lincoln's propensity to sell things was manifested early, and before any necessity was foreseen. If our information is reliable, eleven of Mr. Lincoln's new linen shirts were sold almost before the remains, which were shrouded in the twelfth, had started for that "bourne from whence no traveller returns."

Individually, we are obliged to Mrs. Lincoln for an expression of her ill will. It is pleasant to remember that we were always out of favor in that quarter. And it is equally pleasant to remember that we possessed the friendship and confidence of Mr. Lincoln to the last hour of his life, without paying court, as others did, to Mrs. Lincoln, and in spite of her constant efforts to disturb our relations.

REMARKS OF OTHER JOURNALS.

The New York Express says:

Mr. Lincoln, as President, did not himself spend, in his White House expenses, over $5,000 of his $25,000 per annum.—Congress provided him with fuel, and with light,—great bills in the White House,—with his clerks, messengers, etc.,—nay, almost for all his bills except mere household expenses. He had a large garden worked by Congress, with all the luxuries of summer houses, green houses, &c., &c. He entertained but very little, and then without great expense. And it is very certain, nay, demonstrated in Congress, that when Mrs. Lincoln left the White House, so little was left in it that Congress, forthwith, made large appropriations to make the house even habitable.

There were before the Committee of Appropriations in Congress extraordinary developments, all of which were, by general consent suppressed,—by the consent of the Democrats there, as well as by Thad. Stevens, the head of the Committee, and suppressed for the honor of the country.

The Citizen, a weekly journal of New York, takes this view of the whole subject:

"The letters are all but a confession that the political favors and places obtained and given away by Mrs. Lincoln's influence with her husband were regarded by that lady in the light of personal perquisites, to be disposed of either for presents or flattery, as the whim might seize her. She can now only go one step farther. Let her take up each present, state from whom received, and, further, label it with a memorandum of the probable profits in place, or on some shoddy contract, or permit to buy cotton, which the presenter must have netted. In this manner we think it might be found that the actual value returned by Mrs. Lincoln's influence to a gentleman who presented her with a carriage and a pair of horses—certainly not costing over two thousand dollars, all told—must have been in the vicinity of at least Four Hundred Thousand Dollars; and very likely a similar exhibit might show that every shawl, and dress, and article of jewelry in her collection, must have been paid for (finally by the country,) at the same extravagant rate."

THE NORTH AMERICA
LIFE
INSURANCE COMPANY.
New Features and Advantages Which are Known as Belonging to no Other Company in the United States.
THE MANAGEMENT OF THIS COMPANY IS upon the Mutual Benefit System—the accumulated profits going to the assured.
This company makes a special deposit with the Insurance Department of the State, for which Registered policies are issued if desired, countersigned by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of the State of New York, certifying that such policies are secured by pledge of public stocks.
No other Company gives the assured a guarantee of this character or anything equivalent.
Thirty days of grace are allowed on all renewed premiums, and the policy remains valid and in full force during that time.
No restrictions as to travel or residence abroad at any season of the year, outside the tropics, which gives a nearly world-wide and unconditional policy.
No higher rate of premium charged for stationary Engineers, Conductors, Baggage Masters, Mail Agents, nor in consequence of change of employment after the policy is issued.
Notes are not required with this Company, but a loan may be obtained on the policy for one third of the annual premium, which is cancelled by the profits applied as dividends.
Joint policies, including man and wife, are issued by this Company, and the amount insured is payable to the survivor on the death of either.
Our dividend, January 1st, 1866, was 45 per cent.
Dividends are declared annually, and paid on settlement of 4th. Annual Premium, on all our plans upon the full amount of premiums received.
Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.
All policies issued by this Company are non-forfeiting, after two, in some instances, and three annual payments in others.
The per centage of premium receipts in 1865, over 1864, was 251 per cent; which is nearly double that of any other New York company.
Policies incontestable from any cause except on account of fraud.
For insurance in this Company apply to
F. H. CAMERON,
Agent for State of North Carolina, Wilmington. or
SEATON GALES,
July 4-280. Agent for Raleigh.

"ÆTNA"
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.
ASSETS $7,000,000.
THIS COMPANY ISSUES TEN YEAR NON-FORFEITING ENDOWMENT POLICIES, contracting to pay the amount insured at death or the specified time.
An endowment policy presents the double attraction of providing for one's family or other dependents in case he should be cut off before a specified age, or of securing to himself independence, in case he attains the age. Thus insuring for ten years, a note for one half of the cost will be taken by paying six per cent interest.
This plan gives, in addition to all the advantages of life insurance, a safe and convenient INVESTMENT for one's savings, till they have accumulated to a definite amount; which he receives in one sum at the specified time.

Comprising the following great Freight Routes:
THE POWHATAN
Steamboat Company's Freight Line of Steamers,
PETERSBURG AND WELDON,
RALEIGH AND GASTON,
NORTH CAROLINA,
WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND WELDON,
ATLANTIC AND NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER,
CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA R. R.,
And their connections.
Time Quick and Rates Low.
THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Salisbury, Morganton, Charlotte, Lincolnton, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Chesterville, Winnsboro', Columbia, Sumterville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near these great Railways and their connections.
The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamer. Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh, Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c., &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a Sea Route. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.
Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.
To insure transportation over this Inland Fast Line, mark all goods, whether Northward or Southward bound, "Via Petersburg."
Freight landed in Baltimore day following delivery to the Steamers.
Through Receipts are given and fixed rate per 100 pounds guaranteed both ways.
Rates in every case same as via Bay Line and Portsmouth to and from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.
N. B.—With regard to last named points, freight is forwarded to and from Petersburg by Philadelphia and N. Y. Steamers.

WM. E. PELL, | SEATON GALES, EDITORS.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1867.

THE ELECTIONS.

In order to a proper comprehension of the results and effect of the elections which took place on Tuesday, we compile the following summary:

In Pennsylvania, a Judge of the Supreme Court was chosen, together with the Legislature and County officers. Judge Sharswood, of Philadelphia, an eminent jurist, was the Democratic candidate, (for the Supreme Court,) and Judge Henry M. Williams, also a man of ability, was the Radical candidate. Last year the Democratic vote was 290,896; the Republican 309,274—being a Republican majority of 17,178.

In the Twelfth Congressional District, a vacancy, occasioned by the death of the Hon. Charles Denison, was to be filled.—Judge Woodward, late Chief-Justice, was the Democratic candidate, and W. W. Ketchum was the Radical.

In Ohio, a Governor and Legislature were elected. General Rutherford B. Hayes was the Republican candidate and Allen B. Thurman the Democratic candidate. General Hayes was elected to Congress from Cincinnati, and has resigned. Richard Smith, of the Cincinnati Gazette, was the Republican candidate for Congress, to fill the vacancy, and General S. F. Carey, the well known temperance orator, was the working-man's candidate, supported by the Democrats.—General Hayes' majority last year was 2,358. The Republican vote last year in the State was 256,302, and the Democratic 213,606, making the Republican majority 42,696. The main contest was over the State Legislature, as a United States Senator is to be chosen by it in place of the Hon. B. F. Wade.

In Indiana, a State Legislature and County officers were chosen, but no State officers. The Republicans, last year polled 169,601, and the Democrats 155,399; making a Republican majority of 14,202.

In Iowa, a Governor was elected and other State officers, State Legislature, and county officers. In 1866 the Republicans polled 91,377 votes and the Democrats 55,815.—Republican majority 35,142.

THE REACTION.

Much has been said, of late, of the reaction going on in the North against the Radical policy. We have said but little on the subject—indeed, scarcely admitting that we saw much evidence of it,—yet we have felt sure that it was coming, and that the elections in Connecticut, Maine and California, were evidences of the smouldering fires of liberty burning in the hearts of the people, which must ere long break forth in a sweeping flame.

Enough is not known, at the hour of writing this, to settle definitely the extent of the re-action in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Iowa, but the indications are palpable, that the white people of the North are aroused to the imminent dangers which threaten the Government, and that the purpose of the Radicals to force, without the consent of the States, negro suffrage upon the country, will be resisted by them. The election in Pennsylvania may not accomplish much, practically, for the friends of conservatism, yet its moral effect, as an emphatic condemnation of the ultra measures of the Radicals, is immense, and gives assurance that the re-action will go on until the great principles of the Constitution and the foundations of the Government shall be re-established on a firm, and, we trust, enduring basis.

The results of the election in Ohio are still more encouraging. In that State the elections turned directly and pointedly on the party questions at issue between the Radicals, on the one hand, and the Democrats and Conservatives, on the other. The defeat of negro suffrage in Ohio is emphatic, and speaks in a voice of thunder to the ultra Radicals in Congress. The election of the Democratic State ticket is too much even to hope for, perhaps, against a Republican majority of 42,000 last year; yet even Radical papers only claim Ohio by 3000, an admission tantamount to a defeat, while the Conservatives claim the State. Further returns may change the complexion slightly, yet enough is known to give earnest hope to the friends of the Constitution and the Union.

In the mean time, let the friends of the Constitution and the Union, in the South, derncan themselves calmly and hopefully in view of the result, remembering that our own calamities are not yet relieved, and that we must yet quietly wait and watch for the breaking forth of the full orbed-sun of liberty upon the Southern hemisphere of the Republic. That time will come.—But, having learned by painful experience to endure disappointment and hardship, let us avoid, by speech or act, everything which, in the least, may arrest the progress of the great re-action or throw impediments in the way of our friends, who are laboring for the restoration of "Liberty and Union, now and forever, one and inseparable."

THE CONSERVATIVE MASS MEETING.—Tucker Hall has been rented for the Conservative Mass Meeting, which will be held in this City, on Saturday. We hope to see a large attendance of our friends from the country on the occasion. Prominent gentlemen will address the meeting, though we are not yet prepared to give the names of all who will be present. Due announcement, however, will be made.

We learn that on Tuesday last one hundred emigrants from the Western portion of our State passed over the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, bound for Tennessee. We must believe that they will succeed in any country, as they must have a great deal of muscle and nerve to colonize in Brownlow's dominions.—Warrenton Courier.

Does the Courier know why the people from the Western portion of the State prefer Tennessee to North Carolina? Is it not because Tennessee is in the Union? Is it not because in that State civil and not military law prevails? Men every day are leaving this and other unreconstructed States for homes in a section where law is administered through the regular channels.—Peace, peace, quiet, quiet, is what every good citizen wants. If not to be obtained here, they will go elsewhere.—Wilmington Post.

The above remarks of the Post, to an honest and intelligent mind, sound as a good specimen of its irony. What evidence, on earth, do the facts connected with the history of Tennessee afford, that civil law prevails there? Where is the proof? Why is Gen. Thomas and his military force retained in Tennessee, a reconstructed State, but to protect the innocent citizens of that State from the ravages and riots of Brownlow's militia? How can civil law be said to prevail, when the best citizens are shot down in broad day-light by this militia?—An intelligent gentleman, now residing there, writes that he has never seen such a despotism. Travellers through the State confirm these views. Emigrants into the State, so far as we can learn, are Brownlow sympathisers. Men of conservative views do not go there to seek peace or prosperity. Those who have left this State, as mentioned above, were, no doubt, Brownlowites, who got tired of waiting in North Carolina for the coming of the Tennessee despotism—that good time for which Radicals long, in North Carolina.

The Post says, that good citizens are daily leaving this State to seek peace, quiet and plenty elsewhere. That is true, and they would go by the thousand, if they had the means. But they would not go to Tennessee, and few of them do go there. They go North in preference. Here, they do not find peace, quiet nor a promise of prosperity. Why? Whose fault is it? Why are we kept in this unsettled condition, in which no man can tell which way to look or what best to do,—where to invest the little he has or how to employ it? Is it because our people are hostile to the government? Is it because they are enemies of the constitution, or of the Union, or of peace? We deny it and defy the proof. We have sought to make peace, to cultivate friendship, by a steady submission to the most onerous requirements of the law-making power of the government. We have done all that any people can do, to prove the fidelity and the honesty of our surrender and the abandonment of every principle hostile to the perpetuity of the Union, and our readiness to be the friends and supporters of the government; and yet our professions, attested by our acts, are spit upon, and we are told we must stay out in the cold, till we admit the equality and superiority of the negro, and are still daily threatened with a worse fate. Who can hope for recuperation or prosperity in North Cbrolina, under such a state of things as Radicalism promises to our people? What encouragement is there to plant, or build, or risk labor and capital in any thing, while this state of things exists? Who can hope for immigration or prosperity in North Carolina under Radical rule? Who can see in the distance a speck as big as a man's hand, which promises hope and relief, and quiet or contentment?

THE PARDONING POWER.—A gentleman at Raleigh, for whom we have great respect, writes us suggesting that we did Gov. Worth injustice last week in our notice of a paragraph stating that the Governor had pardoned a negro who had been convicted of larceny. We protested against the pardon of rogues. We could not understand how, after a fair trial and conviction, the criminal could be justly relieved from punishment. But in justice to the Governor we give the statement of our friend at Raleigh as follows:

"The application for Lilly's pardon was made by the prosecuting attorney at the trial, and was handed to the Governor by the Judge, in person, who presided at the trial and passed the sentence, with his own unqualified endorsement written thereon. The prosecuting attorney represented that he had already undergone a portion of his sentence, and that the ends of justice had been attained, in that the prisoner, (whom he had seen undergoing his sentence,) had been thoroughly "cured." In addition to this, he represented that unless he was released he would lose his entire crop of cotton and corn, which he had worked industriously to make, and his wife and children become a charge upon the county. I think I know you well enough to feel assured that, under the same circumstances, had you been armed with the pardoning power, you would have granted the same pardon.

If there be any portion of Governor Worth's administration upon which more than any other he may safely challenge investigation, it is that of his exercise of the pardoning power. He has adopted it as a rule to grant no pardon except upon the endorsement of either the Judge, Solicitor or Jury—the recommendation of the first being required where a question of law only is involved, and that of the two last when questions of fact are involved—and no man has ever received a pardon at his hands upon a promiscuous application of citizens only. And in cases in which the least doubt arises as to the propriety of granting pardons, he invariably requires the combined endorsement of Judge, Solicitor and Jury."—Charlotte Democrat.

We observed, at the time, the exceptionable remark of the Democrat, in the above mentioned case, but did not reply. We are glad that it has been noticed properly and truthfully by the correspondent of that paper. The friends of Gov. Worth are willing to have all his official acts rigidly scrutinized. He never allows himself to do any thing hastily, or without a full conviction, at the time, that he is doing right; and in the matter of pardons, no man can be guided by safer or sounder rules than he is. Hence, relying upon his purity of intention and purpose, in all his acts, we are not uneasy when papers or persons condemn him. If, at any time, you do not approve of his acts, ask him before you strike. He will always give you a sound reason for his action in all cases.

SAGACITY OF THE PRESIDENT.

President Johnson, amid storm and sunshine, through weal and woe, it will be remembered, has never faltered in his implicit reliance upon the people of the United States, as the grand conservators of the Constitution and of right. He has steadily maintained that the "sober second thought" of the people would turn them as certainly and as steadily to the Constitution of the United States, as the great chart and protector of American liberty, as the needle does to the pole.

The New York Herald, for some time, has plainly indicated the progress of a Conservative re-action in the public mind at the North. That paper, if it does not make public opinion, does, from its extensive and intelligent correspondence, at least serve as a safe index of the changes which occur in popular sentiment. While, therefore, we have been moderate in our expectations and cautiously observant of public events, we have not doubted, for months, that a change, powerful and overwhelming, must come over the public mind of the North, in regard to the dark and ruinous designs of the Radical party, against the very life of the Republic, as foreshadowed in the Howard amendment and Reconstruction Acts. We hope the current of Conservative forces has fully set in. Let the Southern people, however, be guarded in their conduct and speech and moderate in their expectations. Obey the laws and be true to the government.

RADICAL DOCUMENTS.

The Republican Committee at Washington is flooding the South with demagogical and electioneering documents, which are not worth the paper upon which they are printed, franked by members of Congress. Hotels, Railroad cars, omnibuses, and even Conservative Editors, have a full supply.—The Editors of this journal are indebted to Gen. Schenck, of Ohio, for a small cargo of these documents. We will spread the light by appropriating them to light our pipes as we read over the news from Pennsylvania and Ohio. A friend remarked that the large number of these deceptive and demagogical papers, now sent South, indicated that the Committee had no further use for them in the North. We judge so, from the character of the election returns already received.

HENDERSON AGRICULTURAL FAIR.

The other day, under a misapprehension, we stated that visitors, as well as articles for exhibition, for the Henderson Fair, which takes place on the 16th., 17th. and 18th. of October, would be both charged one fare for going and returning on the Railroad. We have received the correspondence with Dr. Hawkins, in which he states that all articles for exhibition will be passed free. The advertisement of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad in this issue fully explains the matter. Visitors will be charged one fare to and fro, and all articles for exhibition will be passed free both ways, except such articles as may be sold or change hands on return.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN NORTHAMPTON.

POTECASI, N. C., Oct. 4th, 1867.

Pursuant to previous notice, the Constitutional Union men of Northampton assembled at Potecasi, on Friday, the 4th. of October, for the purpose of taking into consideration the deplorable aspect of affairs existing in the State of North Carolina, and to appoint delegates to a general Convention of the Conservative men of the State, to be held in the City of Raleigh, on the 16th. of October.

On motion, Dr. J. C. Jacobs was called to the chair, and R. J. Beale appointed Secretary. On taking the Chair, Dr. Jacobs set forth the object of the meeting in a short and pointed speech.

On motion of Mr. Peebles, it was resolved, that a Committee of five (5) be appointed by the Chairman, to report resolutions and appoint two men as delegates from each Captain's district in the County, to attend the Convention to assemble in Raleigh on the 16th. of October; under which resolution, the Chairman appointed to constitute said Committee, Messrs. Wm. Boon, H. C. Edwards, R. B. Peebles, John E. Maggett and Jere Daughtrey.

During the absence of the Committee, appropriate remarks were made by Messrs. Jacobs, Martin and others.

The Committee, on returning, reported that, after mature deliberation, we deem it unnecessary to draft a series of resolutions, but would beg leave to submit for the action of the meeting, the resolutions adopted by the Conservative meeting held in the City of Raleigh, on the 27th of September. The resolutions of said meeting were then read by Mr. Peebles, and, on motion of Mr. Shone, unanimously adopted.

The names of the delegates were then reported, consisting of Messrs. John Squire, T. G. Tucker, J. W. Grant, Andrew Ellis, Westley Brittle, N. Thomas Mason, Saml. Edwards, James Stephenson, Sr., W. J. Taylor, Dr. J. N. Ramsey, E. A. Carr, J. B. Deberry, H. S. Britton, Turner Taylor, Jere Daughtry, H. T. Grant, Francis Spivey, G. D. Holoman, T. E. Hardy, Nathan Hoggard, John E. Maggett, Littleberry Gilliam, James H. Edwards and J. B. Barns, whites; and John Runnels, Britton Cumbo, George Vaughan, Miles Peebles, W. H. Burgwyn, George Rogers, Elisha Stephenson, Allen Hawley, Lawson Parker, Claiborne Moody, Lazarus Pope and Wm. B. Hawley—colored.

On motion of Mr. R. Shone, the report of the Committee was received, and the Committee discharged.

On motion of Mr. Shone and amendment by Mr. Peebles, it was resolved that the proceedings of this meeting be transmitted to the Sentinel, North Carolinian and Roanoke News, with a request for publication.

It was then moved and adopted, that there be a mass meeting of all the citizens of Northampton County, without regard to race or color, at Mt. Carmel, on Saturday, the 12th. inst., for the purpose of further deliberating upon the deplorable aspect of affairs existing in the State of North Carolina.

After an able, masterly and eloquent address by Mr. R. B. Peebles, the meeting adjourned.

JOHN C. JACOBS, Ch'm.

R. J. BEALE, Sec'y.

Chief Justice Chase arrived at Columbus, Ohio, on Saturday last, and was received by the citizens of the place. He made a long speech in which, while stating that his position prevented his taking an active part in politics, he avowed his sympathy with the radical party, stated that he intended to vote the republican ticket, and declared himself in favor of negro suffrage.

For the Sentinel.

A DIALOGUE.

SCENE—Editor's Sanctum in the City of Raleigh—X. P. G. alone.

X. P. G.—(soliloquizes.) Blast that fellow, Goodloe! I had so shuffled the cards that, backed by the negro vote, I should hold the highest trump, and have any position in the State which I might desire; and having turned against my own people and sustained the Northern Radicals in their demands for the lands of the Southern people for themselves and the negroes, they would have done anything for me, even to the repeal of the "iron-clad," to allow me to enter Congress as U. S. Senator, to which I would have been elected as certain as that the sun shines, but for this infamous treason of Goodloe. Well! I could not have expected better from an original Abolitionist and Black Republican. The converted Secessionists are the best Radicals in the country. Such gallant fellows as Butler, Logan, Brownlow, Billy Henderson and myself are the best Radicals, while such consistent fools as Gerritt Smith, Goodloe, and others, are quibbling about "robbing land" from the Southern people, when they would be benefitted by it. I'll swear it is too bad.

Enter Junior Editor, (with the morning's mail.)

Joseph William—Father, the Grand Jury has indicted Col. Henderson for horse stealing, in Davidson!

X. P. G. Zounds! hush!! its false.

Jos. Wm.—Upon my honor it is true—Col. Dewease has just told me so.

X. P. G.—Its false! Dewease! Dewease! He is too willing to hear of the degradation of a native Radical. Disgrace such talented and whole-souled fellows as Billy Henderson, and the offices are left to just such "Yankee adventurers" as Dewease.

Jos. William.—Hush, father, you have been abusing Goodloe for applying that epithet to such Northern men as Col. Dewease, and here you are doing the same thing.

X. P. G.—(furious) Goodloe was right, and only said what I now feel. Henderson was the apple of my eye—the most talented man, and the finest stump speaker in the State, and he would stand by me, no matter what it cost. I do not believe a word of the slander.

Jos Wm.—But, father, Font Taylord told me so, too.

X. P. G.—Did I not tell you never to mention that crazy creature's name to me again? You know he has not the sense of a mosquito, and is twice as boring. I never want to hear his name again.

Jos. Wm.—But, father, what are we to do? We must not refuse to believe a thing because it is unpleasant to us. We must take things as they are and endeavor to make the best of them. All the decent white men in the State had already left us, before this misfortune to poor Bill Henderson. Dick, Pool, Settle, Carter, Brooks, Thomas, Goodloe, and every other man, of any character or sense, have left us. Poor Henderson stood by us to the last, and he could have held us up, and given us character, everyway. But he can no longer do us any good, poor fellow!

X. P. G.—Our movement is ruined, if this report be true of Henderson's misfortune. Why, what a fool he was to let them catch him stealing!! I never was caught in my tricks yet, and mark me, Joe, never will be. Something must be done. I have it. I will denounce Henderson as a scoundrel in the next issue of the Standard. This will throw him as the odium of his unhappy miscarriage, and with prudence, we can still keep our heads above water.

Jos. Wm.—You will not denounce your friend—him who has stood by you to the last—who was true when all others were false! You cannot and will not do this thing!

X. P. G.—What, timid! Would you have me spare a mere man, when the fate of a great party is at stake?

Jos. Wm.—I am not timid! I have braved more than you or any other white Radical. I have travelled all over the State with Jim Harris—have sat by him in the cars—and dined with him; for which I have been despised by whites, and laughed at by negroes. Am I timid? Have I not kept company with Font Taylord in the presence of sensible people? Am I a coward? Have I—

X. P. G.—No more, Joseph; I have done you injustice. You're a brave boy. Let us drop the subject—the Executive Committee are to meet, and I will lay poor Henderson's case before them, and—

Jos. Wm.—But, father, there is another difficulty—poor Henderson is a member of the Committee—and, if his name is not struck off, Old Pell will ding-dong you and the Committee forever. You know you had Judge Dick taken off the Committee, and Henderson put in his place yourself, and—

X. P. G.—Well, well, we'll have to strike off his name, that's all—what was I doing to have Dick displaced? By so doing I have made him mad and disgraced the Committee and I fear the cause. His name must be struck off, and Coldman, young Coldman, shall fill the vacancy. He has deserved it by his great speech, and he is better qualified, in every way, to fill the place of the talented and lamented Henderson!

(Bursts into tears—and the curtain falls.)

BO-PEEP.

DR. WARREN STONE ON YELLOW FEVER.—We read in our New York exchanges that our distinguished fellow citizen, Dr. Warren Stone, says the N. O. Picayune, delivered a lecture at Bellevue College, in that city, on the 23d, upon the origin, nature and treatment of yellow fever. The lecture was pronounced before a large audience, composed of the leading medical gentlemen of the city and the students of the college, by whom it was received with profound attention and a vote of thanks. We make the following extract from the report of the interesting lecture:

"In regard to the etiology or causes of yellow fever, there had been much dispute. It had been a question whether it was imported, or of local origin. It certainly was not imported in ships. The epidemic influence was wafted through the atmosphere in waves or cycles, and it always made gradual and regular approaches; so that in New Orleans they knew when it was coming by its prevalence in islands in the gulf. In the year 1851 it began in Brazil, and after passing over the northern part of South America and the West India Islands, it reached New Orleans in 1853. In 1855 it had travelled as far as Memphis, and was severe in many of the interior towns. Its history in New Orleans the present year was remarkable. It first appeared in a mild form, and in several places at once, in June, and though the weather was favorable to its spread, it did not increase in intensity, and only about 9 cases occurred per week. These cases evidently originated in this city. But later in the season a fresh wave approached from the direction of Mexico, appearing in a violent form to Indianola, Galveston and New Iberia, and lastly in New Orleans, where it appeared in a severe form and in increasing ratio, though the weather was of the kind considered unfavorable to its propagation."

The patriotic Gen. Logan, whose loyalty at the commencement of the rebellion was unquestioned and undisputed, only charges six thousand dollars for stumping Ohio for the Radicals. There is love of country for you.

EXTRAORDINARY CONFESSION OF SPEAKER COLFAX.—It was stated that Mr. Colfax, in a recent speech, threatened President Johnson with hanging. This was indignantly denied by his friends; but we now find, by a full report of his speech, published on his own authority, which is equivalent to a confession, that what he did say on this subject was quite as bad, if not worse, than he was originally charged with. The Speaker of the House of Representatives threatening in a public speech to hang the Chief Magistrate of the United States like a common malefactor, is one of the most disgraceful exhibitions of partisanship that even rampant radicalism has yet made. It was generally supposed that the Speaker of the House should be a gentleman. All the traditions of Congress and the respectability of a constitution which created the office presuppose that fact; but that the Speaker should threaten the Chief Magistrate with the ignominious death of a felon only shows to what a terrible state of demoralization the leading politicians of the republican party have sunk. It is but in accordance with the instincts of gentlemanly society that a man using such language would at once forfeit his status and be expelled from all association with gentlemen. We can only say that Mr. Colfax, by his own confession, has disgraced his character and has entitled himself to a denial of all the courtesies of respectable society henceforth.—N. Y. Herald.

The Arlington estate, the property of the wife of Gen. Robert E. Lee and her children, left to them by the will of the late G. W. P. Custis, was sold by the United States tax commissioners Hawxhurst and Watson, on the 11th of June, 1864, for non-payment of the direct war tax, $93.67, with 50 per cent. penalty and 10 per cent. interest, and was bid in for the United States Government—the officers of which hold it still as a freedmen's village, farm, school-houses, cemetery, &c.—Alexandria Gazette.

Valuable Real Estate near Oxford For Sale.

PURSUANT TO AN ORDER OF THE COURT of Equity for the County of Granville, I will, on Tuesday, the 22nd inst., at the Court House door in Oxford, offer for sale, at public Auction, the land of which the late Col. Thomas I. Hicks died seized and possessed.

This land is situated about half a mile North of Oxford, and contains about Eight Hundred and Forty Acres, about one-half of which is original forest. It has upon it a large and comfortable DWELLING HOUSE, with all necessary out-houses. Also a Valuable Grist Mill.

The Mill and all its appurtenances, with a small part of the land, will be sold separate, and the rest will be divided into two nearly equal parts and each sold separately.

TERMS:—A credit of one, two and three years, with interest from day of sale,—the purchaser giving bonds with approved securities, and the title reserved until payment of purchase money.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We call special attention to the announcement of the Corresponding Secretary of the Border Agricultural Society of Virginia and North Carolina. We have repeatedly alluded to the approaching Fair, and shall take pleasure in doing so again.

Beautiful French China: Pulliam, Jones & Co., Fayetteville St.

Labor-Saving Pump, Agricultural Ware-House, &c.: Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern.

Capt. T. F. Lee offers a reward of $20 for the recovery of a lot of cattle stolen from his pasture on Tuesday night, and a similar amount for the apprehension of the thief.

OUR MERCHANTS are all filling their shelves and counters with splendid and varied stocks of goods. We hope that all of them,—especially those who advertise,—will make quick sales, for that will show that our people have the wherewith to buy. There have never been in this City more inviting or larger assortments of goods of every description.

In the line of Family Groceries, there are few, if any, Houses in the State, we imagine, not purely wholesale, that present greater attractions for retail trade than those of our friends, W. R. Andrews, Fayetteville Street, and Douglas Bell, Market Square.

CITY POST OFFICE.—On all days of the week, except Sunday, the Post-Office of this City will be governed by the following rules:

The Eastern Mail will close at 9.30, A. M., and the Western at 1, P. M.

On Sunday, the Office will be open from 7 A. M. to 6.30 P. M.

FIRST OF THE SEASON.—We are indebted to W. Robert Andrews, Family Grocer, Fayetteville Street, for a bag of new Buckwheat,—the first in market the present season and a very superior article. All lovers of Buckwheat cakes will, of course, call at once and provide themselves at Andrews', where they will find everything else that is seasonable, palatable and good. Don't take our word for it. Go and see for yourselves, and be convinced.

COAT LOST OR STOLEN.—A young gentleman of the City, Mr. Geo. W. Fentress, while engaged in working at the fire, on yesterday, had a broad-cloth coat stolen, which was committed to the charge of a little boy and by him laid down for a moment. A suitable reward will be paid for its delivery at his father's residence.

FIRE.—Between 2 and 3 o'clock, on yesterday, the alarm of fire was sounded, and our population poured in the direction whence it proceeded. A kitchen attached to the residence of N. S. Harp, in the Eastern Ward, was found to be in flames, which speedily communicated to the dwelling, consuming it also. The residence adjoining, occupied by W. D. Williams Esq., was several times on fire, but our firemen, assisted by citizens, white and colored, notwithstanding the scanty apparatus and the scarcity of water, succeeded, by diligent and strenuous exertions, in saving it, though it was much damaged by mutilation. Several small tenements around, smoke-houses, &c., were burned.

Had there been promptly on the premises one of the Portable Fire Extinguishers, the fire could have been at once quelled.—The Messrs. Tucker, Agents, had one on hand, as soon as it could be arranged, but after the flames had made full headway, and, we learn, it was used with good effect.

Mr. N. S. Harp desires to return thanks to his fellow-citizens for their active efforts to save his property on yesterday, and to Col. Russ, especially, for his generous offer of a home for his family until he can make other arrangements.

MESSRS. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co. will move into their splendid new Store in the course of a few days.

CAPT. WADDELL, the former Commander of the Shenandoah, passed through this City, on yesterday, en route for Hillsboro, where his relatives reside, and where, we believe, he was himself born.

DEATH OF MRS. DR. HAWKINS.—We announce, with deep regret, the death of Mrs. Hawkins, wife of Dr. W. J. Hawkins, President of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, which took place early yesterday morning, at his residence in Warren. His numerous friends sincerely sympathize with him and family in this great affliction. We hope some friend will furnish a suitable obituary notice.

THE FINDINGS in the cases of the grocers in Wilmington, who were tried before a Military Court on the 25th. of last month, for violation of that section of Gen. Order No. 32, which relates to the sale of spirituous liquors, have transpired. Each of the parties was found guilty by the Court, and the findings, with some few slight changes, were confirmed by Gen. Canby. The sentence, as ordered to be carried into effect, is $100 fine for each person, or, in default of the payment of the fine, imprisonment for two months.

NEGRO WOMEN CLAIMING A FIRST-CLASS PASSAGE.—On Friday afternoon two negro women from Philadelphia took passage on the Steamer Louisiana, Captain Russell, for Norfolk. Instead of going to the place on board appropriated for the accommodation of negroes, they went into the ladies' cabin. Before the time for the boat to start they were politely informed that they were in the wrong place, but they replied that they were "first-class passengers," and should insist on remaining where they were, in the best apartment the boat could afford. Captain Russell was informed of the state of affairs, when he went to the cabin and tried to explain that there was a place for "colored people," but they were deaf to him, and expressed their determination to remain where they were. Finding all expostulation of no effect, Captain Russell sent for policeman Cunningham, who in turn tried his powers of persuasion with the same effect as those who had preceded him. The women were stubborn, and Cunningham became determined, and when all entreaty failed, he found it necessary to eject them from the cabin. Unable to have their own way in the matter, they left the boat with a threat to appeal to Judge Bond, (Radical,) who they felt assured would assist them in their demand to have the best place on the boat. Up to last night neither the negro women nor the champions of "manhood suffrage" had taken any steps to vindicate the cause of the sable daughters of Philadelphia.—Baltimore Gazette.

GEN. BUTLER'S FINANCIAL SCHEMES.—Gen. Butler's recent letters on the public finances are creating a good deal of comment in Washington among the Treasury officials and financial men generally. Secretary McCulloch and Assistant Secretary Chandler have been overrun with parties who are particularly interested, and who are anxious to obtain their views on Butler's ideas. It is stated on the authority of a prominent Treasury official, that when Gen. Butler had written his first letters he was asked if he did not fear he would hurt our securities in Europe. He replied that he hoped it would, as he was opposed to the present financial policy of the Government, and he had prepared a bill, taking as his text his two published letters, which he will introduce in Congress early in the next session.—Tribune.

RECONSTRUCTION ELECTION IN MISSISSIPPI.—Gen. Ord has called the election in Mississippi under the Reconstruction act.—Commencing on the first Tuesday (5th) of November, the commissioners of election are to travel their circuits, opening a poll in each precinct at ten A. M. on consecutive days (if possible) until the circuit is completed. Then the returns are to be duly certified to headquarters. The number of delegates to a Convention is fixed at 100.—Vicksburg has five delegates, Columbus and Jackson have four each, Natchez, Holly Springs, Hernando, &c., three each. We presume a similar order will be made for Arkansas, which is in Gen. Ord's district, but the fact has not yet been announced.

ANOTHER POINT FOR GREELEY TO CONSIDER.—Hon. James Brooks, replying to Senator Frelinghuysen, of New Jersey, who had quoted from St. Paul to show that God made all nations of one blood, said he did not finish the quotation. If he had continued he would have found that God had also "determined the bounds of their habitation." The boundary for the government of the negro is his own native land, while this is a white man's country and a white man's government. God and our fathers had made it so, and the great struggle we have now is to keep it so.

"A special from Nashville to the Cincinnati Commercial says that it seems to be conceded that Governor Brownlow will be elected to the United States Senate from Tennessee, in place of Mr. Patterson, whose term expires March 4th."

Next to sending a coal-black Ethiopian, the result of old Brimstone's presence in the Senate will have a wholesome effect. Think of Brownlow's lifting up his voice in the chamber which once resounded to the deep-toned eloquence of Daniel Webster!—Norfolk Virginian.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Thursday Morning Dispatches.

THE ELECTIONS.

PENNSYLVANIA.

[FIRST DISPATCH.]

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9, A. M.

Venango County gives a Democratic gain of 250.

Berks gives a Democratic majority of 6,000.

Cumberland, a Democratic gain of 213.

Franklin a Democratic gain 483

The footing up for the City shows a Democratic majority of 1,589.

In Schuylkill, the Dem. gain is 79. It was previously reported that the Dem. loss was 500.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9, M.

Thirty-five Counties (half the State) give a Democratic majority of 6,826.

Woodward (Dem.) is probably elected to fill the Congressional vacancy, though he runs 700 behind the ticket in Luzerne.

THIRD DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, 10 o'clock, P. M.

Woodward, Dem., is elected in the twelfth Congressional District.

The Democratic majority in the State is about NINE THOUSAND!

No figures yet from Iowa.

OHIO.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9, A. M.

Sandusky Co. gives a Democratic majority of 550, and a vote against the amendment of 700.

Cayuga Co. shows a Democratic gain of 1,000.

The Cincinnati Commercial office telegraphs that Carey is elected to Congress by a good majority and negro suffrage is defeated.

Congressman Eggleston telegraphs to the same effect.

In Greene Co., the vote on the amendment shows a Republican loss of 925.

The probabilities favor the election of the ENTIRE DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9—M.

In twenty-six counties (not including Hamilton,) there is only lacking 790 of the average gain necessary to carry the State for the Democrats.

The Republicans here only claim Ohio by 5,000! Nothing decisive is known here.

The Cincinnati Commercial, of this morning, says that late dispatches show such large Democratic gains as to leave the State ticket in great doubt.

In Hamilton county, where the Republican ticket is elected by 1 500 majority, the majority against the negro-suffrage amendment is 5,000

[THIRD DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9, 9 o'clock, P. M.

The Cleveland Leader concedes Thurman's election by 5,000. The Columbus Journal, on the other hand, maintains the election of Hayes by a small majority. It says the Republicans have a small majority in the House, but concedes that the Senate is Democratic by one.

The Gazette and Commercial (Radical) both telegraph here that negro-suffrage is defeated by 50,000!! and that the Legislature is Democratic. They claim Hayes' election by 3,500.

FOURTH DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, 10 o'clock, P. M.

Private dispatches make Thurman's election highly probable.

Carey's majority for Congress is 994,—a Republican loss of 2,800.

INDIANA.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9, A. M.

Scattering returns from various parts of the State show Democratic gains. In Allen Co., the gain is over 400.

ELECTION IN NEW JERSEY.

NEWARK, Oct. 9—P. M.

At the Charter election here, to-day, the Republican candidate for Mayor received only 35 majority—a Republican loss of over 1,200.

DISTRICT COMMANDERS—LAWLESS CONDUCT OF NEGROES.

RICHMOND, Oct. 9—P. M.

Gen. Schofield left to-day for Washington, where he and the other District Commanders, it is stated, have been called by the President.

A telegram to the Dispatch says that, yesterday, the U. S. authorities, who are returning to their owners the farms in Norfolk County which have been squatted upon by the blacks during the war, went to Taylor's farm, on Willoughby Point, but found the blacks armed and refused to evacuate. The authorities retired. Many of the farms in that District are similarly situated, and the negroes express a determination not to be driven off.

In the case mentioned it was offered to transfer the negroes to Gen. Wise's farm, but they refused.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9, P. M.

Gen. Sherman, and Gov. Parsons, of Alabama, had an interview with the President to-day.

MARKETS.

LONDON, Oct. 9, M.

OHIO WHITE BOYS IN BLUE.—This is the name of a political organization there, which is made up of soldiers who have been in service or under fire, but go against equalizing themselves with and fraternizing with the negro. They did not fight, they say, even to free negroes, but to restore the Union. Such an organization ought to be instituted in all the States. We have about thirty thousand of them here in New York and Brooklyn alone.—N. Y. Express.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!!

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS FOR 1867.

Old Prices Reached the City and Stopped at

A. CREECH'S,

R. SMITH'S CORNER,

Fayetteville Street.

I AM NOW RECEIVING MY FALL AND WINter Stock of

Staple and Fancy Dry Goods,

And I can say, with safety, that I have one among the largest and most complete stocks that has ever been brought to this City, either before or since the war,—embracing almost any and everything suitable for Ladies' and Gentlemen's wear.

CALICOES, 10, 12½, 15, and 18 cents per yard.
FRENCH MERINOS, 75 cts. to $1,50 per yard.
DELAINES, POPLINS, and a great variety of other Dress Goods, embracing all the new novelties of the season, and will be sold cheap enough to insure sales.
BROWN DOMESTICS, 12½, 15 and 20 cts. per yard.
BLEACHED DOMESTICS, 12½, 15, 20 and 25 cts. per yard, and all other goods in proportion.
Also, the largest and most varied stock of CLOTHS,
CASSIMERES,
SATINETS,
TWEEDS,
AND KENTUCKY JEANS
I ever offered to the trade in this City, both as to price and quality.
Also a very fine assortment of White and Colored FLANNELS,
LADIES' CLOAKS,
BREAKFAST SHAWLS,
SQUARE AND LONG SHAWLS,
which will be sold at prices to suit my customers.
Ladies', Misses' and Children's TRIMMED AND UNTRIMMED HATS,—new styles, from 50 cents to $4,00 each.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

The largest and best stock I ever brought to the City, consisting, in part, of J. Miles & Sons' make, and others of equally high standing.
Ladies' Pegged Balmorals, from $1 to $2.
Ladies Sewed Balmorals, from $1,50 to $3,50.
CREECH'S is the place to come to buy your Boots and Shoes.

Hats, Hats, Hats,

From 75 cts. to $4,00. Don't stop until you come to CREECH'S to buy your Hats. In fact, I think I can meet the expectations of all my customers and the public generally, both as to price and quality of ALL Goods.

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "luck again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost;" some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold out my old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in Store, and opened for inspection.

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.

I told the people to come to Creech's to buy their goods, that I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And I here take the privilege to say, I think they have shown their good judgment.

Don't forget to come to Charlotte and South Carolina Railroad—Columbia, S. C.

North Eastern Railroad—Charleston, S. C.

Cheraw and Darlington Railroad—To Cheraw, S. C.

Arrangements have also been made for carrying through freights at Petersburg and City Point, with the Powhatan Steamboat Company to Baltimore, No. 90 Light Street Wharf; J. W. Brandt, President; with Clyde's line of steamers to Philadelphia, W. P. Clyde, Agent, 14 N. Delaware street, and with Old Dominion Steamship Company for New York, shipping point Pier 26 North River, foot of Beech street, N. L. McCready, President, office 187 Greenwich street, corner of Dey.

Through freights marked via Petersburg to or from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and above named places in North and South Carolina, transported as cheap and expeditiously as by any other route.

Through bills lading will be given with the rates guaranteed at the depots and shipping points of the companies comprising this Great Through Route.

To insure the safety of freight, direct your consignors to mark all produce and merchandise care of Railroad Agent, Petersburg, who will forward them free of extra charge to their destination, North or South.

DAILY SENTINEL.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1867.

BLOOM AND WITHER.

Hast thou seen the flowers wither
When the chill was on the blast?
Hast thou watched the wind leaves falling
When the tempest hurried past?
Even so within the spirit
Drops the blossom of delight,
When the hurricane of sorrow
Sweeps along in giant might.

From their wintry caverns stealing,
Waste and ruin roam abroad,
Crushing loveliness and beauty
That once intense gave to God;
So from falsehood and deception
Comes the mist of angry scorn;
Wraps its poison round the feelings
While they yet are in their morn.

What though Summer breezes whisper
Life and happiness are thine!
When the shades of twilight gather,
Will the sun come back to shine?
Yes; but only when the darkness
Has run out its ordered course;
When the coolness of the night-dew
Brings the earth and joy divorce.

Long and drearily the hours
Shall with sluggish current flow,
Leaving only memory's bowers
Where the pining thoughts may go;
And when fades the dying twinkle
Of the borrowed light of hope;
Then the shades of night shall tremble
And the gates of morning ope.

Yet the Spring would lose its freshness
Were no Summer fast behind;
And the beats of Summer weary
Could no sun of Autumn shine;
And the rich earth be exhausted
By the fullness of its wealth,
Did not Winter's slumber bring it
Reawakening to health.

Birth and budding! Bloom and wither!
These are nature's mystic laws,
Circling round without an ending,
Til by death we reach their cause:
Happy he who losing pleasure,
Seeing bliss and hope go down,
Sends no sighing thought behind him—
Marches on without a frown!

His must be the faith which feathers
Every arrow fate can send;
His the star forever guiding
On to where the storm shall end;
Once again for him the sunlight
Over earth shall stretch its glow;
Once again the healing music
Of enjoyment sweetly flow.

Learn the lesson, lonely pilgrim,
Nature teaches to thy heart;
Calmly bear the ills that fortune
Sends thee, till those ills depart!
Find a rim of silver lining
Round the darkness of each cloud;
Pressing bravely onward ever,
With a courage high and proud!

RELIGION VERSUS FASHION.—The following is commended by a religious contemporary to fashionable professors of religion, both in the country and the city:

"A mother not long since was at the communion table on the Sabbath, and, when an earnest appeal was made for an offering to help spread the Gospel abroad in destitute districts of our country and in heathen lands abroad, she gave five cents, and afterwards complained before her children that calls of this kind were so frequently made. During the following week she paid out nearly $20 for the merest shadow of a bonnet of the latest style for one of her children. A young woman recently at a monthly concert of prayer for missions gave a three-cent currency note into the collection box, and the next day paid several dollars for a more fashionable pair of ear-rings than those she was wearing. Not long ago a man, who had long been a member of a church, declared he had nothing to give when an application was made to him for help to build a plain and much needed house of worship in a growing but poor district of one of our cities, yet in the course of the next few weeks he spent several hundred dollars at various fashionable watering places entirely in pleasurable gratifications."

As a weary traveler was winding his way through the mud in a far west region of the country, he discovered a young maiden seated in front of a small log house. He rode up in front of the cabin and asked the girl for a drink of water. He drank it, and she being the first woman he had seen for several days, offered her a dime for a kiss. The young maiden accepted the offer, and received both the kiss and the dime. The traveler was about to resume his journey, but the girl, never before having seen a dime, asked: "What am I to do with the dime?" "You may use it any way you wish," he replied; "it is yours." "If that's the case," said she, "I'll give you back the dime and take another kiss."

A "lovely girl" in Wisconsin recently recovered $1,400 damages in a breach of promise suit against a perfidious lover. Her lawyer congratulated her on the amount, when she exclaimed, with a ferocious glance at the mulcthed defendant, and nervously clenching her fingers, "I'd give every penny of it just to have one good pull at his hair!"

A negro was so convinced of the lowliness of his race that he was indifferent as to a future state, believing that "dey'll make niggers work eben in Heaben!" A clergyman tried to argue him out of his opinion by representing this not to be the case, as there was no work for him or any one else to do. His answer was: "You gwo 'way, massa; I know better. It dere's no oder work for culled persons up dar dey'll make um shub de clouds along!"

"What will you do when you get to Heaven, if you are such a naughty boy?" asked a vinegar-faced nurse of a beautiful little child that was "fulfilling his destiny" by the commission of all sorts of innocent boyish pranks. "I'll look around and say boo!" was the characteristic reply. The old nurse shook her head mournfully, and relieved her feelings with a pinch of Maccaboy.

A dandy of twenty-six having been termed an "old bachelor," appealed to an elderly gentleman to decide whether he should be called "old" or not, giving his age.—"Twenty-six," said the elderly gentleman. "It's owing to how you take it. Now, for a man, it is young enough; but for a goose it is rather old."

Rabbi Joshua once met a boy who carried something in a covered vessel. "My boy," said the Rabbi, "what have you in your covered vessel?"

"If it was intended for you to know," replied the boy, "it would not be covered."

Paper currency is the child of the war.—Ex.

We find considerable trouble in "raising" that child.—Louisville Democrat.

COTTON GIN HORSE POWERS.

WE BEG LEAVE TO INVITE THE ATTENTION OF COTTON PLANTERS TO OUR

IMPROVED EIGHT-FEET STATIONARY POWER

FOR

DRIVING COTTON GINS.

It is SIMPLE, STRONG and COMPACT, and can be easily put together. We sold a large number last season and the demand is constantly increasing.

The following letter from Col. Hoon, of Surry County, speaks for itself:

* * * * * It is with much pleasure that I state, your Gin Horse Power bought last season proved an entire success.

I applied a 13 feet lever and 6 feet band wheel to a 45 saw Gin, and one pair of ordinary mules which improved on constant work, and with slow gait of team gave sufficiency of speed; a capacity to gin about 4,000 per day.

The wear and tear in ginning 60 bales of cotton is not perceivable. So not think it could be estimated at 2 per cent. It was put up and geared by one of the best machinists in the State, who pronounced it superior to any patent he had seen; also, several gentlemen familiar by long use of gins, have examined it and decided to lay aside their old powers and order this pattern of you.

Yours, most respectfully, WM. H. HOOD.

RAILROADS.

ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD
AND
NORTH CAROLINA
GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD,
From Charlotte and all Points on the N. Carolina and its Connecting Railroads, to the Seaboard at Newbern and Morehead City.

THE STATE OWNS THREE-FOURTHS OF the North Carolina Railroad and three-fourths of the ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD. This is the

STATE LINE,

To its OWN SEAPORT and on its OWN BOARD. All other lines are in opposition.

A six per cent dividend on this line will save the people from taxation $295,000 per annum.

Under a resolution of the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, all Freights are to go via Goldsboro', unless otherwise specially directed by shippers.

When at Goldsboro', you are only sixty miles from the shipping point, instead of one hundred and sixty via Weldon, and eighty via Wilmington. Our Steamers are equal to any other line, both for Freight and Travel. Time as short as by any other, and as cheap.

THIS is the Line

To ENCOURAGE. You get dispatch, safety, but one handling, and less Railroad transportation than by any other line.

Three-fourths of the PROFITS made on this line go directly into the STATE TREASURY, and if encouraged, you will soon be relieved from heavy taxation at least two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars.

The Railroads composing the N. C. GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY LINE have recently agreed to unite in a

GREAT THROUGH LINE

Route to all the Northern Markets, on equal terms and charges, via our own ports to and from the North.

Cars run through to all points without breaking bulk.

Notice to Shippers of Freight.

THE SEABOARD INLAND AIR LINE
Via Portsmouth, Va.,

IS THE ONLY DIRECT LINE BETWEEN Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and the Carolinas.

It is express in point of speed and safety of Freights, being from

FORTY TO SEVENTY HOURS

in advance of all other lines, and at as low rates. It offers daily communication with Baltimore, daily communication with Philadelphia.

Five Steamers each week to and from New York.

Two Steamers each week to and from Boston.

It is the only line having these advantages, and by which there is but one handling of freight.

Cars are loaded at the wharves in Portsmouth and are run through to destination.

Be careful to direct your Consignors to ship only

From Baltimore, by the Norfolk or Bay Line Steamers, foot of Union Dock.

From Philadelphia, by the Annamessic Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot, or by Clyde's Line, 14 South Delaware Avenue.

From New York, by the Old Dominion Steamship Line, Pier 37 North River.

From Boston, by the Norfolk Steamship Line, end of Central Wharf.

All losses, damages, or overcharges promptly adjusted on application to

JAS. McCARRICK,
Trace Agent, Portsmouth, Va.

Have your freight marked Via Portsmouth, Va., and in shipping to Philadelphia, marked Via Clyde's Line, or Via Annamessic.

NORTH CAROLINA
ALL STATE
RAILWAY LINES, (THAT USED TO BE!)

THE OLD RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD, THE SHORTEST, QUICKEST, SAFEST AND BEST LINE, NORTH AND SOUTH TO BE LEFT OUT IN THE COLD, UNLESS SHIPPERS SPECIALLY SAY VIA. R. & G. R. R!

WE inaugurated and are the Great through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of Shippers, North and South, for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand Shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the State near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her Interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come $40,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

NOTICE!

The Great Inland Air Line Freight
R O U T E,
Via THE RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD,

is the Short Line for Shippers, and you are required so to direct your Freights, or they will be taken by another Route!

To Insure your Freight being carried over this Great Inland Air Line safely, direct your consignors to mark your Freight, Care of Rail Road Agent, Portsmouth, Va., or City Point Va., via Raleigh & Gaston Rail Road, and to ship as follows:

FROM BOSTON:

Merchants' & Miner's Line, end of Central Wharf, E. Sampson, Agent.

FROM NEW YORK:

DEMONSTRATORS OF ANATOMY.

WM. C. NICHOLS, M. D., C. J. BICKHAM, M. D.

The Thirtieth Annual Course of Instruction in this Institution will begin November 11th and end in the following March. Preliminary lectures will be given daily in the Chirurgical Hospital, commencing October 15th, at which time also the new and extensive rooms for Practical Anatomy will be opened. The facilities of the school, heretofore unsurpassed, have, by the liberality of the State Legislature, been greatly increased during the past season, so that now EVERY CHAIR HAS ATTACHED TO IT A PRACTICAL DEPARTMENT, in which students are taught to observe for themselves the facts set forth in the Lecture Room.

Fees for all the Lectures, $140; Matriculation, (paid but once) $5; Practical Anatomy, $10.—Payment required in advance.

A Cheap Cotton Press.

FARMERS, BEFORE YOU BUY A PRESS OR build a Screw, enquire into the merits of the

GODWIN COTTON PRESS.

Hear what the following reliable gentlemen say:

I have seen Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press work at Mr. P. E. Smith's plantation, and it does all that he says it does in his advertisement, and more. I think it superior to any other mode of packing Cotton, and saves both time and labor.

W. R. SMITH.

I have used the above mentioned Press, and consider it the best I ever saw for packing Cotton.

THOS. J. VAUGHAN.

I have packed about 100 bales of Cotton with Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press, and take pleasure in recommending it to the farmers as a great labor-saving machine. It does not cost more than half as much as a Screw, and is worth twice as much.

It is so convenient, and takes fewer hands to do as much work as a Screw. I would pay the price of a Press rather than allow a man to fist up a screw on my place for nothing.

D. EDMONDSON.

I have used the above mentioned Cotton Press, and it does better than a Screw. Takes less hands, does not waste Cotton, and is much cheaper.

J. H. CURRY,
Sup't W. H. Smith's Plantation.

I have packed about 70 bales with Godwin's Cotton Press, and am certain it is the best, cheapest, most compact and durable Press in existence, costing only half, at first, and lasting twice as long as a Screw.

PETER E. SMITH.

I have never seen the Cotton Press of Mr. Jno. H. Godwin at work, but have no doubt, from the certificates of the gentlemen above, that it performs all they say of it. I know them to be gentlemen of character and veracity, and that their statements are entitled to credit

RICHARD H. SMITH.

The last name is one of our most honorable and respectable citizens, well known as a former members of the Legislature. I offer this PRESS as combining more advantages for packing than any now in use; it is adapted to large or small farms, and is so simple and cheap, that any good mechanic can build it. It is well adapted to

WATER-POWER.

It is 10 or 11 feet wide, 3 feet and 3 inches thick; top of frame above ground, 16 feet; highest point of Lever, 18 or 19 feet. The platform on which the bale is turned out, is 10 feet above ground.

Length of box, 10 feet in the clear.

Length of bale 5 feet, by 2 feet 4 inches. Weight 500 or 600 lbs. It is put up flat against the Lint Room, thereby preventing the scattering of the Cotton and need of baskets.

The Press is chiefly built of smallings.

The Inventor has spared no pains in his experiments to make it practicable, convenient and cheap. I charge

$25 for a Single Right.

The total cost, including cover and everything, is about $150. Much of that, farmers are not in the habit of including as cost.

I think I can sell County rights at about $10 by the hundred.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted, &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God."

which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such state by the commanding general, giving to each representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates, as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general, within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification, to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

Sec. 5. That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

Sec. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Sec. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers; and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."

THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine

IS OFFERED TO THE Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing
LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.
Until the invention of the Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER, which, being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; "a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench."

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause.

You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify.

I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.

Send for a Circular.
